THE GREAT REVOLUTION

Of General Crespo is Triumphant In the Venezuela Republic.

HE OVERTHROWS THE GOVERNMENT

The Fugitives Loot and Sack the Residence of La Guayra--Crespo's Army Marches Into Caracas the Capital Without Opposition --- Admiral Walker's Good Work in Preventing a Reign of Anarchy--Order is Finally Restored.

New York, Oct. 9.—Caracas has fallen' The triumph of General Crespo over the government forces is complete. The revolution is victorious, says the Herald's Caracas, Venezula, correspondent under date October 8.

After defeating the army of the government at San Pedro, Gen. Crespo began his march upon the capital.

Three thousand of his troops, commanded by Generals Guerra, Rodriguez and Fernandez, entered the city of Caracas last night. Gen. Crespo with the balance of his army is at Salvira, a short distance from the city. He will enter the capital to-morrow.

enter the capital to-morrow.

Had the advance troops of Gen, Crespo's army been angels of peace, instead of messengers of war, their advent would not have been more welcome to the people of Caracas. After the cruehing defeat at San Pedro, the government perceived that they have planned its last card and lost, and actual-President Pulido and his cabinet fled before the advancing hosts. The news canced an instantaneous panie throughout the city. It grew in intensity as stragglers and refugees from the defeated army came pouring into the ly as stage and pouring into the city, telling the terrified inhabitants that Gen. Crespo and his army were close at their heels.

Confusion and disorder reigned, Hundral Confusion and disorder reigned, Hundral Confusion and Confusion arms of the arms of the confusion and disorder reigned.

Contains and disorder reigned, itundreds of persons joined the army of furitives which had started for La Guayra when the first news of the disaster to the government troops was received. Then all semblance of order was at an end. People who had been too cowardly to light either for or against the government and many of Pulido's soldiers took advantage of the Pulldo's soldiers took advantage of the situation to begin rioting and pillaring. Scores of houses were sacked. Many were cruelly clubbed and beaten for daring to protect their property. The rioters were no respecters of persons.

Acting President Pulldo and the members of his cabinet took advantage of the confusion to slip out of the city. It is runored that they embarked on some ship in the harbor of La Guayra, perhaps one of the government vessels. It is impossible, however, to trace their movements at present. That they sought safety in flight is certain. The followers of Crespo as soon as they reached the city, at once devoled their attention to restoring order, and soon reached the city, at once devoted their attention to restoring order, and soon succeeded in repressing all open demonstrations of violence. But of necessity it must take some time before the unfortunate city can be again restored to a condition of tranquility.

Before Crespo's detachment reached La Guayra, it was a hell filled with rioters. The news of the forces coming had not got fairly under way before the town filled up with refugees and stragglers from the army of Pulido, an army that had met its Waterloo, and adherents of the government who had army that had met its Waterloo, and adherents of the government who had fled from Caracas, so as to be out of the way when Crespo's men got there.

There was a lot of incendiary material gathered in the town. Pillage and plunder became general. Many houses were looted and there was much wanton destruction of property.

How far things might have gone it is impossible to say if Admiral Walker, acting with admirable energy and decision, had not landed a force of sailors and marines to hold the mob in check and preserve order. The sailors were warmly welcomed by all who were not themselves seeking plunder. There is no doubt that much property and perhaps many lives were preserved by the landing of the men from the cruisers Chicago and Kearsarge. Chicago and Kearsarge.

INDIAN DISSATISFACTION.

There May Be an Outbreak at Any Moment-The Messiah Spirit.

OMARIA, NEB., Oct. 9 .- Dr. V. T. Mc Gullidy, of Rapid City, S. D., well known as one of the best posted men in the country on Indian matters, is in Omaha, having just come from Pine Ridge agency. Talking to-day to a Bee reporter, he said: "I don't wish to nose as an alarmist, but the situation at Pine Ridge is not at all satisfactory just at present, and there is no immediate present of it improving. Americants's Hold Sway.

HUELVA, Oct. 2.—A grand banquet was given this evening to the members of the congress of Americanists. Speeches were made expressive of the cordiality and friendship existing between the different nations. Premier Canova's Del Castillo, in felicitous language proposed the health of the heads of all the nations represented.

Responses were made by the mayor of Huelva and Mr. Davis, representing America, the latter declaring that the service rendered by the Anglo-Saxon in their visitation of America ought not to be forgotten.

The conductor in charge applied the brakes, which gave way. Blocks were thrown under the wheels and everything done to stop its onward course, but to no avail. Just abead of it, two miles away, a hand-car bearing Section Foreman Lawrence, two Italian track men and John Curran, a representative of the Youngstown Bridge Company, of Youngstown, Ohio, were on their way to their work. It having rained the night before the runaway car made but little noise, and owing to the noise of the hand-car it was not heard. The crash was fearful. Nothing was left of the hand-car. Three of the men did not know what killed them. Mr. Lawrence lived until he reached Jane Lew, his home, where he died in a very short while. He was not able to tell anything about the accident.

This had no effect. Another hand car was run over, but luckily the men had just left it. Pieces of this car were thrown many feet. The lumber on the car was scattered many miles. It came to a stop one and a half miles north of Newlon on the track, nearly eleven miles from where it started, ten miles of which it made in nine minutes. Works Will Use Oil.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 9.—Steubenville is threatened now, on approach of cold weather, with gas shortage. Manufacturers and private consumers are laying in a supply of coal, to be prepared for emergencies. The Royal Gas company has made three increases in prices since its inception, amounting to 50 per cent. They have shut off gas from the Jefferson iron works, while the Acme glass works, because of shortage, will begin next week and only work at night; they will not return to coal in case gas plays out, because it is too primitive, but will introduce oil.
Their last stack was not built for coal,
so that its use is out of question. The Royal gas company claim they are ex-pecting several new wells in, which will relieve the present scarcity.

A Pennsylvania Combination

PITTSBURGH, PA. Oct. 9 .- A conference of the state chairmen of the People's. Prohibition and Socialist Labor parties will be held here early this week to arrange a fusion electoral ticket, so that the three parties will secure the three per cent of the vote necessary for the printing of their full tickets on the balot next year. The ninety-six electors for the parties named are printed alpha for the parties named are printed alphabetically on the ballot this year, and it is proposed to vote for the first thirty-two names, irrespective of their politics. It is claimed that the combined vote will exceed fifty thousand which will be more than the required three per cent of the total vote.

and possible loss of life may result.

The Norwegian ship Sirene, which sailed from Fleetwood for Sapelo, in ballast, on Saturday, encountered the storm in all its fury and was terribly buffeted by the howling wind and tremendous seas. The vessel strained and labored through the angry waves and her sails were split and torn away, until finally she became entirely unmanageable, and to the dismay of the officers and the crew, they found that the ship was at the mercy of the wind and sea, and that she was in imminent danger of being blown ashore and smashed to pieces on the rocks.

Those on board the Sirene struggled heroically to head the vessel out to sea, but try as they might, they could not prevail against the elements and the ship drifted ashore this morning. The people in the vicinity had become aware of the Sirene's verilous position, and ship drifted ashore this morning. The people in the vicinity had become aware of the Sirene's perilous position, and large crowds anxiously watched the vessel as she was tossed about helplessly on the water, and she went ashore in full sight of thousands of persons who had collected on the beach and on the pier at the place where she struck. The crowds rushed to the spot as soon as the vessel struck, and efforts were at once made to rescue the crow of cleven men. At the risk of their lives a number of boatmen put off from the pier, and boatmen put off from the pier, and after a desperate hattle with the ways succeeded in bringing all the crew safely to dry land, amid the plaudits of the watching crowds.

The latest attempt of the denizens of the lower quarters of the city to prevent the cleaning and disinfection of their homes occurred to-day.

Several of the sanitary officers were engaged in the work of disinfection, when they were set upon by the occupants of the house in which they were working. Their assailants were at first women, armed with kettles of boiling water, which they threw out of doors and windows on the officers. To Lose Their Good Money, and Will Not See Grover's Call-Chairman Harrity Only Gives $25-Blaine Will Speak, and When He Opens His Mouth the Lesser Lights Should Keep Silent-He is Willing to do Anything for the Success of the Republican Party.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 .- In view of the call for funds by Chairman Harrity and Chairman Dickinson, there has been a natural interest to ascertain the size of the check contributed by ex-President Cleveland. It will be recalled that four years ago he sent his check to Calvin Stewart Brice for $10,000.

The Mugwumps at that time criticised the managers of Mr. Cleveland's campaign for letting it be known that he had sent his check for that amount., They were not sure whether he ought to have contributed or not, but they were sure that his contribution should were sure that his contribution should have been kept a secret.

To practical politicians these were highfalutin notions. At any rate, as Mr. Cleveland is not now the occupant of the White House, and inasmuch as the Mugwumps of New York state, who insisted at Chicago that he should be nominated, promising to raise $500,000 among themselves if he were, have so fee contributed little they can scarcely far contributed little, they can scarcely criticise the announcement made, at headquarters to-day that three weeks ago Mr. Cleveland contributed his check

The check was turned over to Treasurer Robert B. Rooseveit, and by him sent through the Hollend Trust Company. It is reported that Mr. Cleveland's personal friends, E. C. Benedict, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Dickinson, have each contributed $10,000.

The amount of Chairman Harrity's check was $25. But in view of the fact that Mr. Harrity contributes his services as chairman nothing more was expected from him.

There were plenty of avenues opened for the expenditure of the contribution of Mr. Cleveland and his three personal friends. The Democratic national campaign of 1884, according to the best authorities, cost about $400,000 while that it 1880 acts that $250. tional campaign of 1884, according to will run to higher figures, for the reason that the fight extends over more states. Money will be needed in New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansus, not to speak of Michiand and other states.

The promises from Mugwumps having come to naught, Chairman Harrity

Ho did not like the idea of appearing on a public platform, but if his health permitted he would waive his personal comfort and do anything reasonable that the National Committee desired. He is to answer definitely in a little while.

The subject of money also came up at Mr. Carter's bureau. At the beginning of the campaign it was thought neces-sary that a fund of $2,500,000 should be raised. There have been several disraised. There have been several dis-appointments, but it was said to-night, by competent authorities, that before the month was out everything would be
